First Annual
Friends of Art Studio Art Prize

Who?
Any currently enrolled undergraduate Sweet Briar student may apply. One submission per person please.

What?
A $250 prize for original art work in any medium created in the current academic year (summer 2012-winter/spring 2013), either work created for a class or work created by the student on her own. The art work must be in some manner inspired by, reacting or responding to, or related to an art work held in the Sweet Briar College art collection.

When?
Deadline for submissions is March 29, 2013.

How?
Interested students should e-mail a photo(s) of the art work and a brief application (name, title, medium, dimensions, id of the art work that it references or to which it responds) no later than 5 p.m. Friday, March 29, 2013 to Karol Lawson, at klawson@sbc.edu. Works will be reviewed by a jury comprising representatives from the Studio Art Department, the SBC Art Galleries, and the Friends of Art board.

Please note: The winning artworks will not be added to the campus art collection.
The student retains ownership of and copyright to her art work.

The Friends of Art is a philanthropic organization comprising alumnae, students, faculty, staff, friends and neighbors of Sweet Briar College that encourages the study and enjoyment of the visual arts on campus by supporting art acquisitions and educational programs. The Friends of Art Studio Art Prize is generously underwritten by the family and friends of Lydia Daniel in loving memory of her contributions to the Sweet Briar community and her love of art.
